

When I travel I need up to date traffic and weather reports. Last year when I was traveling I got caught in a bad storm in Louisiana. If I had XM Radio I would of heard about it and changed travel plans sooner. Most local stations nowadays may or may not give you up to date information. The worst offenders are the automated stations owned by large chains.